

Family Managed Support Worker, permanent, part-time

North Edmonton private hire

We are a loving family who is looking for a suitable individual to support our young adult son by planning and facilitating his inclusion in community, to lead a rich and meaningful life. This is a family managed work arrangement and we are keen on hiring a person who has an understanding of autism or developmental disabilities, and a commitment to the right of all people to be included in all areas of community life. The ideal candidate will be a person of integrity, dedicated, empathic, patient, well organized and trustworthy in supporting our son to build a meaningful and enjoyable adult life.

Job Description

Support and facilitation areas as follows:

- Support emerging expressive communication through verbal, visual schedule and Ipad (training will be provided by parents)
- Explore opportunities related to personal interests
- Develop and maintain friendship with peers
- Support independent living skills
- Facilitate meaningful connections in community and exploring personal interests outside the home
- Hands-on activities such as simple meal preparation
- Explore opportunities for employment and support him when opportunity arises
- This position is up to 25 hours per week and the schedule is negotiable.

The successful candidate will be required to complete a Criminal Record Check and a Vulnerable Sector Check to be considered for this position; as well as First Aid & CPR.

Start date - Immediately

Salary: $20.97 /hour (can be negotiated based on previous work experience and education/training)

Please send your resume to roman.gm3@gmail.com